INTERVIEW WITH JUDGE BECKNER.

The People Enthusiastic and His Prospects Flattering.

Judge W. M. Beckner, Democratic candidate for the short term in Congress, was at home last week, and one of the Winchester Democrat reporters dropped in on him for an interview.

"What do you think of your prospects?" was asked.

"They are very flattering indeed," he answered. "I have been over twelve of the sixteen counties in the District and the Democrats are wide awake and greatly strengthened by the improvement in business since the repeal of the McKinley act."

"Where have you been this week, Judge?"

"In Elliott county, where I spoke Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday."

"Was Mr. Bosley with you?"

"No, I left him at Highland last Tuesday week. He said that he was going from there in search of Mr. Hopkins, whom he had never seen. It was as touching as the departure of Jason in search of the Golden Fleece, or the legendary quest for the Holy Grail. I invited him to be with me at Martinsburg last Monday, but as he did not come, I suppose he is still on the trail of the preaching candidate."

"Is Mr. Hopkins making any speeches?"

"Oh, no. He can't. He knows nothing about public questions, and his party does not want him to appear in public, because if he did, he would show his entire want of qualification for the position he aspires to fill. He has been moved since his nomination to an unwelcome activity in preaching. I see that the Sun quotes one speaking slightly of Mr. Hopkins as merely "an old Baptist minister." Of course I did nothing of the kind. I said that as far as I had heard he is a good man, and ought not to be taken from so noble a calling as the ministry, in which he seems to be a call, to go to Congress where he would be of no service. I served with him in the Legislature last winter and know whereof I speak. He had no standing at Frankfort as a legislator, and it cannot be said that it was because of his politics. There were Republicans in the House, such as Tom Kirk, of Johnson, and Dr. Bowman, of Lewis, who were frequently heard in debate and who had influence with their colleagues. Mr. Hopkins was nominated as a vote catcher, but the Baptists of Eastern Kentucky do not take their religion too much in its earlier history from those who were trying to convince church and State to commit such folly themselves."

"What are Mr. Hopkins' religious views, Judge?"

"He is a Free-will Baptist. I want to repeat here what I have always said about him. Since he has been nominated he has been seized with a great zeal in his Master's service, which is hardly consistent with his desire at a stated period to abandon it and go to Washington. I have made no criticism of him that is in any sense ungenerous or unkind, or that he would not confess to be true."

"What do you and Mr. Bosley discuss?"

"Mr. Bosley talks about little else save protection. He enlivens it a little occasionally with a rhapsody on the humbug called reciprocity. He is the most rabid protectionist I ever heard talk."

"We have heard that he admits wool has gone up in price since it was put on the free list?"

"Yes, he did at Mr. Sterling and in his speech at the Courthouse in Winchester. He gave it up at Mr. Sterling squarely, and said that the only way he could account for it was that the people had become scared lest wool would become free and had disposed of their sheep. He did not explain why it should happen that the sheep were all gotten rid of the day the Democratic tariff bill went into effect. Wool has always gone down in price when a high tariff was imposed on it, and goes up when the duty is removed."

"Do you believe that free lumber will hurt the Democrats in the Eastern part of the State?"

"Of course not. The McKinley bill did not protect our lumber in any sense. It has not a cent of duty on logs or even the sawed lumber. The latter must be planned before it gets any protection, which means of course that the manufacturer and not the man who furnishes the timber or even cuts the boards is benefited. I have defied Mr. Bosley to show where the Republican party has ever protected any lumber that the Eastern part of this State furnishes. He cannot do it, and the people cannot be gulled. Canada has been sending us logs and lumber under the McKinley bill as freely as it did before. The truth is that Canada does not produce yellow poplar, and its white pine cannot affect our lumber trade. Yellow pine from the South supplants in tongue and groove stuff some of our lumber, but this is not affected by the tariff."

"What else does Mr. Bosleyorate about?"

"Oh, he dodges everything save protection, and this he discusses in a general way. He never comes down to particulars in any respect. He steers clear of the silver question and seems opposed to the income tax. The people treat his candidacy as fun, and do not believe that he is foolish enough to believe that he has any chance of success."

"Where do you go next, Judge?"

"To Martin and Johnson. I am billed for Elton Saturday and Paintsville Monday."

"How are the crops in the mountains?"

"I never saw them better. Corn is universally good. There is a fine prospect of early ripening. The failure of this for two years past has made money close in the mountains. The people cannot get pay for their logs until they have reached the rivers."—Winchester Democrat, 5th inst.

FLYING JIB

Breaks the World's Great Flying Record at Chillicothe, Ohio.

At the Chillicothe, Ohio, driving park, on the 11th inst., Flying Jib beat all bar, was racing records by pacing a mile in 1:58.1. He was driven by Andy McDowell. Ten thousand people saw the race. After taking a turn around the track, Andy McDowell, the only driver who ever drove a pace in less than two minutes, mounted the seat and took the reins.

He drove the team up around the loop of the kite, and before the audience knew what was up, it was done.

As he passed the wire McDowell nodded, and the horse was gone.

The pair were going a terrific clip, Flying Jib leading the runner to the half, which was made in :39.4.

The grit was a hot one still, and he kept even pace with the runner and shot under the wire amid the hushed silence of 1,000 people, who eagerly strained forward awaiting starter Laper's announcement of the time. The audience fairly went wild, and Starter Laper had to ring the bell to get order.

Then he said: "You have witnessed that which no audience in the world has ever before seen. You have seen the fastest mile that was ever paced. Flying Jib has beaten Westmont and made the mile in 1:58.1."

The audience once more went wild and applauded the pacer as McDowell brought him up in front of the judges. He took off his cap and acknowledged the honor that was paid him.

The mile Jib went and the time made are all the more remarkable when it is taken into consideration that all day a strong wind was blowing and that the air was cold, the wind caught the horse as he came up the rear stretch, but he paced ahead just the same.

The first half of the heat was made in :59 and the last in :59.1. The quarters could not be taken, as the flagmen were not aware that the start was to be made; they weren't at their posts at the quarter and three-quarter poles.

Every mother should know that cramp can be prevented. The first symptom of true cramp is hoarseness. This is followed by a peculiar cough. The two had sat in moody, silent silence for some minutes. Then she spoke. "Before we were married, Algernon," she said, "you used to declare you could give up heaven itself for me." "Yes," answered Algernon, blitherly, "but I little thought you would ever ask me to give up smoking!"

An Irishman asked a Scotchman one day what railroad engine was always called "she."

Sandy replied: "Perhaps it's on account of the terrible noise it makes when it tries to whistle."

A SUGAR TRUST HUNTER.

The latest rumor which has reached Republican headquarters is one to the effect that the Democratic campaign managers have entered into an agreement with the Sugar Trust that the wholesale price of sugar shall not be increased until after the November elections. After the elections, it is claimed, the campaign managers do not care what the price of sugar is. The trust people, so the story goes, have gladly agreed to this in return for the many favors which the Democratic party has conferred upon it in the Senate tariff bill and securing the enactment of the present law. It is alleged that the Democratic Campaign Committee will issue a statement from the official records of the Produce Exchange at Philadelphia showing that the wholesale price of sugar has not been increased by the passage of the sugar trust bill. These figures, running back for four years, will show that whatever variations there may have been in quotations of granulated sugar, there has been none since the Gorman bill became a law. The Republican Campaign Committee had an intimation some days ago that the Democrats were about to put forth a statement of this sort to counteract the effect which the action of the retail dealers throughout the country has had upon the popular vote. The retail price of sugar has been increased on an average of one cent per pound.

There is an medicine so often needed in every home and so admirably adapted to the purposes for which it is intended, as Chamberlain's Pain Balm. Hardly a week passes but some member of the family has need of it. A toothache or headache can be cured by it. A touch of rheumatism or neuralgia quenched. The severe pain of a burn or scald promptly relieved and the sore healed in much less time than when medicine has to be sent for. A sprain may be promptly treated before inflammation sets in, which requires a course in about one-third of the time otherwise required. Cuts and bruises should receive immediate treatment before the parts become swollen, which would make the cure more difficult. Pain Balm is kept at hand. A sore throat may be cured before it becomes serious. A troublesome cold may be removed by applying it twice a day for a week or two. A lame back may be cured and several days of valuable time saved or a pain in the side or chest relieved without paying a doctor's bill. You need a 50-cent bottle at once and you will never regret it. For sale by John M. Rose.

Neighbor—So the angels brought you a little love to help you fight. Little Girl—Yes, that makes four children, and the house is awful small, but I suppose it can't be helped. It's too hot to keep the windows shut at night.

Mrs. Biddley.—What's that gold dome up there, father? Mr. Biddley.—That's on the State House where the Legislature sits. Mrs. Biddley.—Oh, indeed, I suppose they put the gold far up so's the Legislators can't reach it.

"I would rather trust that medicine than any doctor I know of," says Mrs. Hattie Mason of Clinton, Carter county, Mo., in speaking of Chamberlain's Cough, Cholera and Diarrhoea remedy. For sale by John M. Rose.

"A fellow must sow wild oats, you know," exclaimed the adolescent John. "Yes," replied auntie, "but one should not begin sowing so soon after cradling."

Put out to Just Ten Seconds.

Our citizens to the number of two or three hundred gathered on the burnt district here, on last Monday afternoon at two o'clock, to witness the exhibition made by the Cincinnati and Japan Fire Extinguisher Co. The test was given under the personal supervision of Mr. Herman B. Wells, president of the company, of Cincinnati, and Mr. W. V. Snyder, the local agent, of Georgetown, Ohio, and was satisfactory in every respect, clearly demonstrating the Stemple Extinguisher to be one of the best methods yet devised or invented for the controlling of fire.

A structure of pine boards was built, and after being thoroughly saturated with coal-oil, a match was applied. The extinguisher was then turned on and the fire put out in about ten seconds. All who witnessed the test were thoroughly satisfied that the Stemple will do all and more than is claimed for it. The headquarters of the company are E. C. Spearman and Const. Sells, Cincinnati, Winchester (Ohio) Herald.

MUSIC BY ELECTRICITY.

Wonderful Organ Just Erected in a New York Church.

With the recent completion of its new organ, St. Bartholomew's Church now takes rank in its musical equipments with the finest in the world, says the New York Sun. This great organ, which is divided into three widely separated parts, exceeds in size any similar instrument in this country, with the possible exception of that of the Auditorium in Chicago. The one in the Cathedral at Garden City, L. I., was planned on a greater scale, but is not complete.

The unique feature of St. Bartholomew's organ is that it is operated throughout by electricity, which is applied to the entire key, pedal and stop action. Instead of the old fashioned mass of levers and rods there are miles and miles of silk-wound wires crossing and recrossing within and stretching in a bewildering maze from keys to pipes. There are several electrical organs in churches in this city in which large magnets and powerful currents are necessary, but this vast organ, with its 5,550 pipes, requires only five magnets and a current of three volts for the entire instrument.

The installation of the new organ required a period of fifteen months of careful work. The instrument was built by George S. Hart, of Boston. It is Warren, the organist, superintended the work. About eighteen months ago the church of St. Bartholomew's was enlarged and the choir was moved from the rear to the front of the church. There was a very good organ in the gallery at the time, but with the moving of the choir a chancel organ became necessary. Then the idea was conceived of using the old gallery organ as one of the subdivisions of the new one, the other two portions to be placed one on each side of the chancel. To do this effectively part of the old choir organ was moved to the south division of the chancel and much enlarged by the addition of several hundred pipes.

The gallery division is the largest of the three, and contains part of the great swell and pedal organs, together with the entire solo organ. The next division, in point of size is in a recess at the south of the chancel. It contains part of the swell organ and the pedal divisions. All the pipes that were retained from the old organ have been carefully revoiced and their pitch lowered to the present international pitch. The huge organ is controlled by one performer at the 4 manual keyboard.

The key and stop action of the organ is new and is being patented. In organs of the old style pressure upon a key worked a series of levers to produce the tone, but in this organ pressure upon a key makes an electrical contact, by means of which a small magnet at the pipe is made to draw down a diaphragm. This permits air to pass from the wind chest into a small bellows, which in filling acts as a reed and opens the valve proper to the pipe. The use of the electrical agent insures an immediate response to the touch of the performer and renders the action practically noiseless. The stops all work on the same principle. The solo organ and part of the choir organ are enclosed in special swell boxes. These are really shutter devices, by the opening and closing of which the tones of the enclosed pipes may be shaded from pianissimo when shut to fort when open. One of the swell boxes has two sets of shutters for the rendering of the finest effects and contrasts in shading. Each portion of the swell proper and the solo and choir swells are controlled by four individual pedals. By means of a small locking pedal the mechanism of all four of these pedals may be coupled and operated simultaneously.

It is possible by these means to produce the marvelously exquisite effects of tone-color and crescendo and decrescendo that are only equalled by a large and perfectly trained orchestra. The shutters in one division of the organ are built of slate three inches in thickness, and when they are closed the notes seem to steal out with the mellow pleading of a distant lute. When all the pedals have been coupled and rise to a crescendo the great harmony peals out until the whole church seems to vibrate. What may be most quickly noted in the music of the organs are the breadth of tone and sonority of the diapasons and the delicate and characteristic string tone of the instrument.

To operate the huge organ three electric motors are used for the bellows. These motors are of one, two and three horse power, and are thrown into action by a small key to the right of the desk. This key also lights two incandescent globes beneath the stop rack, which serve to illuminate the fifty-one pedal keys and pedal stops. The current used is led in from the street wires, and its high voltage is reduced by a direct current transformer inside the south division of the organ.

An adjustable combination action is applied to the manual, pedal stops, and couplers of both the chancel portions of the instrument. The action of this contrivance is controlled by knobs beneath the swell, great, and choir manuals, and upon these knobs any combination of stops may be arranged or changed while the organist is playing. This may be done without disturbing any stops that may be drawn by registers. An idea of the size and power of the organ may be obtained from the following: There are 5,570 pipes and 23 couplers, 3 tremolos, 19 adjustable combination knobs and 20 pedal movements, which, added to the 87 "speaking pipes," make a total of 152 stops. The largest pipe in the instrument is the contra-bassoon in the gallery division. It is 32 feet high.

DEMOCRATS WILL RESIST.

To Fight the New York Republican Gerrymander Before the People.

Last Friday was practically the closing day of the New York State Constitutional Convention. The chief bone of contention has been the apportionment for future senatorial and assembly districts. The Republican majority claims that the apportionment is fair to all concerned, but the Democratic minority claims that it discriminates against the large cities in favor of the country districts, and that the discrimination was unfair to the Democratic party as a whole. It was voted to split the bill into sections, though the sections are not as numerous as the leaders of the Democratic minority would have preferred. The measure will be submitted to the people in the form of three ballots. The first ballot provides for the adoption of twenty-nine articles, the second for the apportionment article, and the third for the canal improvement measure.

President Cloatte appointed a committee to prepare an address to the people, explaining the work of the convention. The Democrats refused to serve, and the Republicans were finally compelled to prepare the address without their assistance. The Democrats assert that they will prepare another address, denouncing the address prepared by the majority. The majority address explains that of the 400 amendments proposed only thirty-one have been accepted. These amendments provide for the separation in the larger cities of the municipal elections from the National and State elections, for the prohibition of lotteries, pool selling, book-making and all forms of gambling, for the abolition of the statutory provision limiting the right to recovery for injuries causing death to $5,000, for the prevention of the naturalization of foreigners during a period of nine days previous to a general election, for the adoption of the most approved mechanical devices in elections, for the establishment of a system of registration, for a new apportionment of Senate and Assembly districts, fixing the number of Senators at fifty and the number of Assemblymen at 150, for the enforcement of the principle of civil service reform, and for the prohibition of the contract system of convict labor.

NOW LET THEM FIGHT.

Corbett Comes Down a Nerve and Covers Fitzsimmons' Forfeited Money.

William A. Brady, James J. Corbett's manager, has telegraphed the New York stakeholder to transfer the $1,000 deposited with him in behalf of Steve O'Donnell to Corbett's name to cover the deposit made by Fitzsimmons for a fight with the champion. This amount, with $9,000 to be deposited with David W. Blanchard, of Boston, will make up the $10,000 mentioned by Corbett in his ultimatum issued some time since.

Corbett, in an interview with a gentleman in Hartford, Conn., said that he had covered Fitzsimmons' money in New York.

"What have you to say," asked the reporter, "to Fitzsimmons' reply to your sweeping challenge?"

"There is no reply to make," Corbett replied. "Fitzsimmons is probably not aware of the fact that I have covered his money in New York. I had $1,000 up to match O'Donnell against Fitzsimmons, and I have telegraphed to have it transferred to cover Fitzsimmons' challenge. I will meet Fitzsimmons in New York soon to make final arrangements. I will also meet any other heavy-weight or any other weight in the world the same day. As many of them as like to come with $10,000 I will meet all in one week any time after the first of next July that they wish to choose.

"The public, no doubt, are paralyzed at this declaration I have made, but nevertheless I have the money, and if any one thinks I am bluffing or foolish, all they have to do is to put up $10,000 and make me look like a monkey before the world if I am not in earnest. I will meet all heavy weights, or any other weights in the world that have $10,000, beginning with Fitzsimmons. I am tired and sick of the pugilistic business and want to retire, and after I retire no one can throw it up in my face that I have not defended the championship of America against the world."

We have said so much about a railroad to Hazel Green, and have been so often disappointed, that for some time past we have held aloof. Now, however, we have "a straight tip," to use the language of the gentleman who gives us the information, and we can state with reasonable assurance that Hazel Green will have a railroad within eighteen months or two years. All we have to do, i. e. the people along and adjacent to the line running from Rothwell is to keep a stiff upper lip and demonstrate a willingness to aid in the good work by granting right of way and ties, and a railroad is not only possible but extremely probable. THE HERALD has always entertained the idea that Hazel Green is on the most available route to the seaboard from Cincinnati, and that eventually this eligible location would secure for her a railroad; provided, of course, that the people are willing to contribute in ties, etc., and the latest information we have is to the effect that our idea has not been entertained in vain. Like Rome railroads are not built in a day, and notwithstanding all our disappointments we have never been discouraged to the point that we ceased to hope. She will come if we but do our duty.

Col. W. C. P. Breckinridge, of Lexington, will address the people at the Court-house in Jackson on Monday next, and those who are fortunate enough to attend will hear the finest bit of oratory to which they were ever treated. Not only so, but they will be enlightened on national affairs, and the difference between Democratic reform and Republican robbery made so plain that "a wayfarer man, though a fool," will be forced to the conviction that the Democratic party is the party of the people, to and hear him.

Hazel Green Academy promises to have the best attendance this year that it has yet enjoyed, which is saying a good deal. We hear of several families who contemplate moving to this place to take advantage of the educational facilities offered at the Academy, and the additions thus brought in, together with the large attendance from abroad, will swell the matriculates to a number of no small magnitude. Prof. Cord is an indefatigable worker, and his labors to build up a great school are meeting with a richly deserved reward that should be extremely gratifying to the C. W. B. M. and all friends of education.

Mrs. Rosa Vertner Jeffrey, one of the most distinguished literary ladies of the Southland, died at her home in Lexington on Saturday night last, aged 67 years. She was born at Natchez, Miss., but when only one year old she was adopted by Mrs. Daniel Vertner, and reared in Louisiana under the tutorage of Bishop B. B. Smith, of the Episcopal Church. She wrote her first poem, "My Childhood Home," when only 10 years of age, since which she has given to the country some of her sweetest thoughts and its sweetest songs. Few women were better loved by rich and poor alike.

WHAT THE BOYS THINK OF US.

The Morgan County Messenger suggests Spencer Cooper, the editor and proprietor of the HAZEL GREEN HERALD, as the next Representative from that district. We second the motion of the Messenger, remembering that it is not our say. We would be glad to see him have the honor.—Hustler.

The Morgan County Messenger of the 30th ult. contained an editorial favoring Spencer Cooper as the next Representative in the State Legislature from the counties of Morgan and Wolfe. Mr. Cooper is the editor of the HAZEL GREEN HERALD, has done much to develop the resources in the Eastern part of the State, and would be a creditable Representative for the people of that district.—Sentinel Democrat.

Spencer Cooper, of the HAZEL GREEN HERALD, has been prominently mentioned as a candidate for the Legislature from Wolfe and Morgan. Mr. Cooper is an energetic and progressive man, has done much to develop the resources of his section, and is eminently qualified in every way to fill the office. The good people of these counties would do the proper thing by giving him the nomination by acclamation.—Winchester Democrat.

That Tired Feeling

Is a dangerous condition directly due to depleted or impure blood. It should not be allowed to continue, as in its debility the system is especially liable to serious attacks of illness. Hood's Sarsaparilla is the remedy for such a condition, and also for that weakness which prevails at the change of season, climate or life.

Hood's PILLS are purely vegetable, carefully prepared from the best ingredients. 25 cents.

PUBLIC SPEAKING.

Appointments of Hon. Wm. C. P. Breckinridge and Hon. W. J. Hendrick.

Hon. Wm. C. P. Breckinridge, of Lexington, will address the voters of the Tenth Congressional District in support of the Democratic nominees for Congress, at the following times and places: Jackson, Breathitt county, Monday, October 15th; Salyersville, Magoffin county, Tuesday, October 16th; Prestonsburg, Floyd county, Wednesday, October 17th; Paintsville, Johnson county, Thursday, October 18th; Mouth of Smith's Creek, Morgan county, Friday, October 19th; Sandy Hook, Elliott county, Saturday, October 20th.

The speaking will be at 1 o'clock p. m. No citizen ought to miss an opportunity to hear this distinguished orator discuss the great political questions of the day.

Hon. W. J. Hendrick, Attorney General, will speak at Beattyville, Monday, Oct. 28; Campton, Tuesday, Oct. 30; Stanton, Wednesday, Oct. 31; Clay City, Wednesday night.

I am trying and expect Gen. P. W. Hardin for Hazel Green about Nov. 1st. J. M. BENTON, Chairman Democratic Campaign Committee Tenth Congressional District.

WOLFE COUNTY.

Lee City Locals.

M. P. Williams, of Cogswell, Rowan county, is here delivering and putting up tombstones.

J. H. Evans and wife, of your town, paid A. M. Nickell and wife a pleasant visit Sunday.

Clay Rose and wife, of this place, are visiting Mrs. Rose's parents, Wm. Wells and wife, of Caney.

John Curtin, a machinist of Maytown, was here last week repairing the steam mill boiler of David N. Wells.

Our Joe was in town last week shaking hands with the dear people. He is making preparations for a trip to Washington after the November election.

Born, to the wife of Dr. Jonathan R. Carroll, October 5th, a boy; weight 12 pounds. The mother and child are doing well, but the recovery of the Doctor is doubtful.

Robert Trimble, of Mt. Sterling, representing Trimble Bros., was here last week interviewing our merchants and sold some good bills. Bob is a hustler from 'way back. ASD.

THE HERALD

For Sheriff.

We are authorized to announce SAM HENRY WILLSON as a candidate for sheriff of Wolfe county, subject only to the will of the people at the polls in November, 1894.

THIS PAPER is all home print, and if you want all the good things it contains you should read every article on each of the eight pages. You will find all the local news that way.

Mrs. Isaac Murphy and Mrs. Wm. H. Murphy, of Murphy fork of Grassy, paid us a pleasant call on Wednesday.

WANTED.—The editor of this paper wishes to purchase 25 bushels of corn suitable for fattening hogs. Cash.

Chas. H. Shepard, agent for the Equitable Life Insurance Co., of New York, is a guest of the Day House this week.

Rose & Swango started Wednesday to Mt. Sterling with a nice drove of cattle, 81 head, many of these as nice as blue grass stock.

Mrs. James Lacy, who has been quite sick for a week or ten days, is now sufficiently convalesced to be about her house hold duties.

To all of those gentlemen who assisted us in the removal of our Campbell cylinder press on Monday we return our most sincere thanks.

Thousands of new patrons have taken food's Sarsaparilla this season and realized its benefit in blood purified and strength restored.

"Do you wear pants?" is the attractive heading of the Kentucky Jeans Clothing Co., Louisville, every line of which you should read.

Swango and Pieratt, of this place, started Wednesday for Mt. Sterling with 103 cattle, as good as have been picked up on the mountains for a long time.

Henry L. Godsey will address the people of Campion Saturday in the interest of the Democratic party, and we bespeak for him a good crowd and marked attention.

Mrs. Ellen Pieratt, after an extended trip to relatives and friends at Lexington, and a visit to her daughter, Mrs. Grant Thomas, of St. Helens, returned home on Monday, much pleased with her visit.

W. T. Caskey was thrown from a horse on Tuesday evening last and sustained a severe strain of one of his ankles, in consequence of which he has been walking with the aid of a crutch and cane since.

Charley Ehl, representing Reed, Peckles & Co., Portsmouth, Ohio, informs us that he will be here about the 15th inst., with a full line of samples, and requests that the merchants hold orders for him.

Mrs. F. N. Day is just now opening her fall and winter stock of hats, dress goods, trimmings, wrap, etc., etc., which must be seen to be appreciated. She respectfully invites the ladies of Hazel Green and vicinity to call and inspect before purchasing.

Charley Cioney, after making up his sorghum and gathering his corn, returned to town Wednesday, and can be found at the shop of John H. Rose. While at home his wife introduced to him a new girl baby, and Charley says he thinks she's a Democrat.

S. S. Combs, of Campton, sent to this office two double or twin walnuts, each pair of which very much resemble a fat pawpaw. What is the country coming to, anyway? Everything in produce seems to have been prolific this year—double, treble, quadruple, sextuple, etc.

Do you know that John H. Rose, of this place, is prepared to build you a better wagon and for less money than you can buy factory work. Fact? Look at his ad. in this paper, and if you want a tip-top article give him a call. He also does repairing in all branches of his business.

Oscar Cecil, one of the most progressive farmers of Morgan county, has the thanks of the editor and his better half for a mess of the finest sweet potatoes we have seen this season. We did not weigh them, but they are very large, and we doubt if there was anything produced this year, in this section, that equals them.

George W. Nickell, of Lacy creek, this county, has sold all of his stock and will shortly move to Bates county, Missouri, where he has two sons, his only children. Mr. Nickell was 64 years old the first day of the present month, and his sons having imperturbed him and their mother to come and live with them the rest of their days, Mr. and Mrs. Nickell will start soon. His sons are named Jeff and Will, respectively, and are said to be doing quite well.

David Rose has rented the Pieratt property from J. E. Quickall, and will move his family to it about the first of November. Mr. Quickall will move to the dwelling owned by the MBI Company, and Mr. Bailey, who now occupies it, will move to a nearby residence also owned by the company.

Mr. Quickall, who now has charge of the mill at this place, is engaged in overhauling the machinery, after which he will be prepared to make flour, saw lumber, etc., and in this connection wants to buy a lot of timber. He will put in a planing mill soon, and endeavor to keep a supply of ceiling, flooring, etc., on hand for sale at all times.

John H. Pieratt, John H. Rose and J. W. Cravens, of Hazel Green, and Robert G. Rose, of Lee City, will leave Sunday for Louisville. The first named gentleman goes as delegate from Mizpah Lodge 507 to the Grand Lodge, which meets in that city the coming week, while the others will visit the Grand Lodge and see the sights in the Falls City.

Mrs. H. T. Corl and Mrs. R. B. Cord, of Mason county, who have been visiting here for ten days or two weeks past, left for home this morning, much to the regret of all who met them. They are mother and sister-in-law, respectively, of Prof. W. H. Corl, and were visiting him and his wife. All the ladies who called upon them were much pleased with them, and on behalf of the town we hope they will find it convenient to come again and stay longer.

Note the change in the advertisement of W. W. Reed, of Mt. Sterling. He is just now in receipt of the largest shipment of heating and cooking stoves ever brought to that city, and he says he bought them at a price that will enable him to sell them lower than they were ever offered before. If you happen to be in Mt. Sterling next week, or the near future, be sure and give Mr. Reed a call, if you need anything in his line. You will be well treated whether you make a purchase or not. But why extend this notice, the advertisement speaks for itself and Mr. Reed will verify every statement he makes in it when you see him face to face.

Wanted. Nice fresh butter every week at the Academy Home, for which I will pay cash 12 cents per pound. I would like to engage some person or persons to furnish me 12 pounds a week. I will also pay cash, from 81 to 123 cents apiece, for chickens delivered at the Home. Want five dozen. Wm. H. Cord.

That greasy suit you now have on, the other's up the spout, maybe, or perhaps worn out. Anyhow you need a new one, and you've got the money to buy it. Why do you persist in wearing that back number suit out after the pattern of your grand father's frock Sunday-go-to-meeting garment of a hundred years ago, when you can go to Sharp, Trimble & Denton, Mt. Sterling, and buy an up-to-date bobby suit that will show you off to an advantage? "Clothes don't make the man," but they make the young man more presentable to his best girl than he otherwise would be, and if you don't deck up a little that other fellow will out you out.

Meeting of Directors. The Directors of the Hazel Green Fair Association are requested to meet Friday, Oct. 19, 1894. A full attendance is expected, as there is business of importance to attend to.

H. F. PIERATT, President.

Do you need any plows, harrows, or other farming implements? No. Well, maybe you want a good cooking stove or heater for the parlor. That oldest girl of yours will want to entertain her best beau on Sunday afternoons during the coming winter, and you know he is a good catch, so you had better have the parlor in apple-order. You can't do it unless you have a nice, bright stove, and there is no place in the country where you can do better than at Ed Mitchell's, of Mt. Sterling. He also carries a full line of cutlery, glassware, etc., and if the wedding day has been arranged you can start her to housekeeping with the purchase you can make there.

The Best Ever Used.

Mr. E. W. Young, of West Rutland, Vermont, writes under date of September 26th, as follows: "I have given Quinn's Ointment a thorough trial and find it the most effective remedy I have ever used. I heartily recommend it to all horsemen." This is the universal expression of the leading breeders and horsemen throughout the United States. For curbs, splints, sprains, windpuffs and all blemishes it has no equal. Trial box 25 cents silver or stamps. Regular size $1.50 delivered. For sale by John M. Rose.

ENGLISH KITCHEN.

GUS. LUIGART, Proprietor.

Now is a good time to purchase your wife that handsome winter dress you have been promising her for the past year, and you can find no better place to do so than at the store of Samuel & King, of Mt. Sterling, which is truly fashion's emporium for Eastern Kentucky. There they have everything that fancy fashions have created, and with such an immense stock to select from you can hardly fail to make a selection suitable to your good wife's taste. Now, don't put off buying her that dress, for she has helped you for years in the effort to keep the wolf from the door, and if you are the man you should be you will admit that it was her little savings, more than anything else, that made it possible to prevent his entrance. Go, therefore, and buy her a nice dress. Or, if she is already provided in that respect buy that pair of blankets, that sheeting, or that domestic you have perhaps promised her, and remember that Samuels & King, Mt. Sterling, hold out greater inducements than anybody.

"So Clean" is the finest pure white soap ever introduced here. It is better than Cashmere Bouquet for the toilet, superior to Ivory for fine laundry, and ahead of Sapollo for the kitchen. One cake, 10c; 2 for 15c; 4 for 25c. Sold at this office only.

ELECTROPOISE.

IT CURES DISEASE.

The Electropoise gave me complete relief from excruciating pain in three applications. I also find it good for treating children for their numerous ailments.—(C. T. Soden, with Bridgeford & Co., Louisville, Ky.)

Mr. G. W. Flint, of Skylight, Ky., says: "I suffered for years with my kidneys, inflammation of the bladder and enlargement of the prostate gland. After a short trial of the Electropoise I am entirely relieved, and feel twenty years younger."

I have derived more benefit from the use of Electropoise than from all other remedies combined. I think it the grandest invention of the age. It cannot be praised too highly.—(Mrs. M. E. Gorman, Sadleville, Ky.)

John H. Davis, Esq., of Harboursville, Ky.: "The Electropoise is the best all-round doctor I know of. My wife suffered from the effects of indigestion for several years, a complication of other ailments. Now she is entirely well. Indigestion bothered me a great deal—am now well. One of my neighbors is using it for lung trouble, and reports improvement."

As a curative agent the Electropoise can not be equaled. Nearly 1,000 have been put out from this office in the last three months.

WHAT IS GOOD.

"What is real good?"
I asked in a musing mood.
"Order," said the law clerk;
"Knowledge," said the school;
"Truth," said the wise man;
"Pleasure," said the fool;
"Love," said the maiden;
"Beauty," said the page;
"Freedom," said the dreamer;
"Home," said the sage;
"Fame," said the soldier;
"Equality," said the seer.
Spoke my heart full sadly:
"The answer is not here."
Then within my bosom,
Softly this I heard:
"Each heart holds the secret;
Kindness is the word."
—JOHN BOYLE O'REILLY.

A bar of pine just as heavy as a bar of steel one inch square, will hold up 125,000 pounds; the best ash 175,000 pounds, and some hemlock 200,000.

The world's chief supply of platinum comes from the Ural mountains and the mines are being worked to their utmost capacity, with orders for two years ahead.

At least 500 years before the Christian era the Egyptians had axes of various styles, chisels, mallets, planes and saws, together with levels, rules, rollers, wheels and pulleys.

Has Money to Burn.

The death of Frederick Ryan, a capitalist of San Francisco, Cal., in a railroad accident near Yonkers, N. Y., a few days ago, has made Mabel Ryan Edwards heiress to a large fortune. Two years ago Mabel lived with her father, the capitalist, at Pittsburgh, Pa. She became stage struck and eloped with Clarence Edwards, a mere boy. Mabel was then only sixteen.

The pair went to Chicago, Mabel performing in an "illusion" and "Living Picture" at the World's Fair. Then they came to California, and Mabel worked at the Midwinter Fair as the serial lady, who floats through space in an illusion. Edwards managed his wife's finances. She subsequently performed in several dance halls in this city, and a few weeks ago left with her husband for Portland, Oregon.

THE VOTE LIGHT IN GEORGIA.

The Democratic Ticket Elected by a Good Majority.

A lighter vote was pulled in the Georgia State election on the 3d inst. than was cast two years ago. The Democratic ticket was elected by a majority estimated at 30,000. Atkinson, Democrat, for Governor, ran behind his ticket. Many old soldiers either scratched him or voted for Hines, Populist. Reports from over the State show that the Populists have made gains in almost every county. Indications are that the Populists will have thirty or forty members in the next Legislature, but not enough to affect the Democratic control. Fulton county, outside of Atlanta, went for the Populist ticket. The Democratic ticket elected is as follows:

Governor—Wm. Y. Atkinson.
Secretary of State—Allen D. Calder.
Treasurer—R. U. Harlan.
Attorney General—J. M. Terrell.
Comptroller General—Wm. A. Wright.
Commissioner of Agriculture—Robert T. Nodditt.

The election passed off quietly throughout the State, so far as heard from. The principal interest centered in the vote in the Tenth Congressional District as indicative of the coming contest between J. C. C. Black, Democratic nominee, and ex-Congressman Thomas E. Watson, Third party leader. The Third party vote there has been received in several instances from figures of the last Congressional election. Full returns have not been received. Very little interest was manifested in the election, and the vote in November will be much heavier for both parties. Richmond, the leading county in the Tenth District, will give a Democratic majority of 2,600.

The Islet of Mussova, in the Red Sea, where Italy is sending its Anarchists, is one of the hottest places in the world, and escape from it in that sterile region would be very difficult.

The United States Consul at Odessa, Russia, reports to the State department that of 731 cases treated at the bacteriological station for a year for hydrophobia by the Pasteur method but six died, all children.

Philadelphia is likely to lose a notable monument in the noble old elm tree that has so long overshadowed Walnut street just below Broad. Mrs. Darius Lippincott, who has long defended the old tree from threatened destruction, has just died, and it is likely soon to be removed. The great tree shadows the whole width of the street, and its largest limbs overhang the opposite side walk.

The long, stiff leaves of a pineapple plant are so formed that a heavy dew or a light rain will give nourishment to the roots. Each leaf is a conductor which leads the water to the heart of the plant, where it collects in a diminutive reservoir, allowing the plant to drink the fluid at its leisure. It is not rare to see a small green frog sitting in this pool of water, and he gazes at the observer with a look of solid enjoyment, as if the whole arrangement was created for his special comfort.

The French civil tribunal has settled a difficult question under the Divorce law. It has annulled a marriage between a divorced woman and her ex-husband's brother, on the ground that divorce does not destroy affinity. The President of the Republic may "for serious reasons" grant a dispensation for a marriage between a brother-in-law and a sister-in-law, no matter whether the first husband or wife be dead or merely divorced, but in this case no dispensation had been applied for.

A Cincinnati man describes a novel sight he saw recently at a mill devoted to making paper of pine tree pulp. "I was invited to select a tree, which I did, and it was cut down for me in the morning. I watched it during the day undergoing the various processes of paper-making, and at 6 o'clock that evening the tree was paper. At mid night a portion of it was sufficiently dry to be taken to a printing office, and a few copies of the next morning's paper were printed on this product. From a tree to a printed newspaper in twenty-four hours is probably the best time on record."

The Whiskey Trust Busted.

Attorney-General Maloney, of Illinois, has been directed by Judge Gibbons, of Chicago, to prepare a judgment of order against the whiskey trust. If Judge Gibbons' decision in the case is sustained, it will end the corporate existence of the trust, which is a consummation devoutly to be wished.

AN ENTERPRISING FIRM.

The J. T. Day Grocery Company Will Erect a Four Story Building.

When some time ago J. Taylor Day determined to establish a wholesale grocery in this city it was somewhat in the nature of an experiment. It has been a complete success and he is now in Winchester to stay. The buildings formerly occupied by the Winchester Dining Co., are totally inadequate in size for the business and the bulk of the goods must be stored in warehouses elsewhere. Since the firm has concluded to remain in Winchester they have concluded to build suitable quarters, and plans for a new building are being prepared. The edifice will be of brick, four stories high, and will be situated immediately back of the present building. It will extend from one railroad to the other, a distance of ninety-one feet, and will be forty feet deep. It will be provided with all modern appliances and will be a handsome structure. Together with the old building it will have a total front on the K. C. road of 125 feet and 128 feet on the C. and O.

The building of this will give employment to a number of our workmen and will be of much benefit to our city in other respects. The building will be ready for occupation about the first of the year.—Winchester Democrat.

MORGAN COUNTY.

Ezel Exultations.

Mrs. Rebecca Ragin and son, from Montgomery county, are visiting in town.

W. B. Lykins, another strong advocate of the railroad measure, was in town Monday.

Jeff D. Cox and family, who moved to Kansas about four years ago, returned last week.

A. T. Perrat is offering 25c. for the largest and best ear of corn, and the farmers are bringing in some fine ones.

Miss Clara Perrat is teaching one of the best schools ever taught at this place. She makes the big ones "too the mark."

H. Clay Turner, of Mt. Sterling, was in town again Sunday. He passes through here every few days of late, but never seems to be in any hurry to get through.

Elder D. G. Combs preached the funeral of John McTure at this place last Sunday. A great number of people attended, had a good meeting and "dinner on the ground."

Married, last Wednesday at the residence of J. M. Perrat, Asa Perrat and Miss Mollie Howard, attendants Elmer Hays and Miss Anna Lou Perrat, Rev. J. A. Howard officiating. The bride is very industrious, and in every way a most excellent lady, and the groom was a member of one of the best families on earth. The young couple have the good wishes of all who know them.

BURIAL.

[The greater portion of this letter was crowded out this week, but will appear in our next.—Ed.]

West Liberty Wags.

Court of Claims convened last week. John Dennis' wife is very sick with fever.

Med Oliver and Mrs. Rebecca Elam returned from a visit to Ezel last Sunday.

M. T. Womack and Hon. J. P. Salyer are attending court at Salyersville this week.

Henry M. Cox has gone to Johnson county to buy cattle for the Mt. Sterling market.

W. H. Munker has secured a position with the Power Grocery Co., of Paris, Ky., as traveling salesman.

Wallis, little son of J. H. Caraway, is almost able to set up. He has been sick for several weeks with fever.

Miss Sallie Hord, of Poplar Plains, is visiting friends here. She will go to Presburg to teach a class in music. James H. Cox, colored, and Kendall Williams were fined $17.00 and $15.80, respectively, for running horses in the town.

C. D. Moore, drummer for Ben Williams & Co., hardware, is at home after a prolonged trip through Eastern Kentucky.

Mr. Jacobs, traveling man for A. L. Hoose & Co., queensware, Cincinnati, Ohio, was the guest of the Cecil House last Wednesday.

Street working is now in order. The boys had to bend their backs two days last week. There are 54 in town between the ages of 18 and 50.

Chas. M. Keyser, our enterprising boot and shoe drummer for C. P. Tracy & Co., of Portsmouth, Ohio, returned home last week from a month's trip up the Sandy Valley. He reports that trade is improving.

Jo M. Kendall, Democratic nominee for Congress in this District, arrived home Sunday. He says that he will carry Howard county (Pike). Jo's a hustler; he lets no grass grow under his feet. "Bah for Kendall!"

Movements of "Night-See."

The following improvements and industrial enterprises were discovered to be in operation in Morgan county: Jerry Carpenter, who lives on Long Branch of Grassy Creek, is having a large two-story house built.

J. S. Kieckel, of Jericho City, near Ezel, has one of the most beautiful and attractive locations that can be found in the mountains. He has greatly added to the beauty of his home by having a very handsome double parlor built on the side of his house facing the road, and to add more to his comfort his wife is an excellent lady and a subscriber to THE HERALD. He has only one daughter, whose name is Minnie, and she is said to be the prettiest and most accomplished young lady of the county, and are this finds his way in print she will doubtless be a happy bride, that is if signs don't fail. It is a sight to see how the people are marrying in Morgan county. On Wednesday, October 24, at the residence of J. M. Perrat, of Ezel, Elder J. A. Howard joined in the holy bonds of matrimony Asa V. Perrat and Miss Mollie Howard. There were several spectators present. Mr. Perrat is a son of Frank Perrat, one of Morgan's most prominent citizens, and his wife possesses all the virtues of a Christian lady, and will no doubt make him a loving and devoted wife. That they may live long and be happy is the sincere wish of "Night-See."

The political plot in Morgan county is popping and snapping and appears a little funny. I don't know who is going to be elected, but if the election of Democrats is an honor, it is very likely that Wolfe county can join in with Morgan, in smacking their lips on the juice of a Democratic pie, as I think it is certainly in the bake-pan if the perfume does not deceive us.

From all that we can see and learn the religious state among the people is being much bettered. Preachers of different denominations are now calling for union meetings and hugging each other's doctrine with a stronger grip than ever before. The influence of Elder J. A. Howard, the Christian Union Evangelist of the mountains, and undoubtedly have a bearing towards bringing about this harmony and courtship between the religious sects. Elder Howard is now holding a series of meetings in Menefee county.

The funeral of Martin Robinson's wife will be preached at Tom's Branch on the second Sunday in October, at 11 o'clock, by Elder Howard and Rev. J. A. Howard, of West Liberty. A basket dinner will be served on the ground.

Miss Myrtle Wooten, one among the most beautiful and refined young ladies of Ezel, has recently returned home from Versailles, Woodford county, Ky., where she has been visiting for some time.

Our correspondent had the pleasure of meeting one of Eastern Kentucky's remarkable men for many years, George Martin Hall, of Rowan county, was born in Fleming county in 1827, now being 67 years of age. He is the father of 11 children, 12 of whom are living. He is as healthy a looking man as I ever saw; never had a doctor for himself; is 6 feet tall. His wife is Elder J. B. Dowd's own aunt. He has 70 grand children. He is a subscriber to THE HERALD. William Thomas Hall, his second son, is an able preacher of Christian Unity, and is greatly beloved by all who know him.

On my way to Menefee county I stopped and took dinner with Mrs. McDaniel, formerly of Breathitt county, but now owns a nice farm and is a resident of Menefee county. He has just completed a very nice two-story house. Black is a hatter from the Eastern hills.

The fine group sitting I have along the road would entice or tempt any "possum or coon" that ever lived, but I am certain that no coon or "possum" ever loved grapes and pawpaws better than I do.

I traveled through the beautiful Beaver Valley, and the country is a lovely stream. This is an exceedingly fertile valley, most of the farmers owning from 300 to 700 acres each. The white pebbles glittering on the shores, the rock-reef mountains, with pine, spruce and cedar here and there lined with clusters of the very finest "possum grapes," naturally makes the scenery most beautiful and heart thrilling to all lovers of nature. The people are hospitable and generous, somewhat on the old style, but ever respectful, kind and accommodating.

Mr. Editor, you know that "old time religion" can be relished by your correspondent most heartily. There is a meeting now in progress on Leatherwood, conducted by Elders J. A. Howard and W. T. Hall, of Rowan county. Whether the devil will beat them I know not, but as a general thing they have the name of stirring up and running the dirty old chap wherever they go.

SIGHT-SEE.

A Wonderful Cure.

No disease is more common among the people than scrofula. Handed down from generation to generation, it is found in nearly every family, in some form. It may take its appearance in dreadful running sores, in swelling in the neck or groin, or in eruptions of various forms. Attacking the mucous membrane it may be known as catarrh, or developing in the lungs it may be, and often is, the prime cause of consumption.

In whatever form scrofula may manifest itself, Hood's Sarsaparilla is its inveterate foe and conqueror. This medicine has such powerful alterative and vitalizing effects upon the blood that every trace of impurity is expelled, and the blood is made rich, pure and healthy.

Mrs. Judge Peck Tells How She Was Cured

Sufferers from Dyspepsia should read the following letter from Mrs. H. M. Peck, wife of Judge Peck, a justice at Tracy, Cal., and a writer connected with the Associated Press:

"By a deep sense of gratitude for the great benefit I have received from the use of Hood's Sarsaparilla, I have been led to write the following statement for the benefit of sufferers who may be similarly afflicted. For 15 years I have been a great sufferer from dyspepsia and Heart Trouble.

Almost everything I ate would distress me. I tried different treatments and medicines, but failed to realize relief. Two years ago a friend prevailed upon me to try Hood's Sarsaparilla. The first bottle I noticed helped me, and I continued taking it. It did me so much good that my friends spoke of the improvement. I have received such great benefit from it that I can gladly recommend it.

I now have an excellent appetite and nothing I eat ever distresses me. It also keeps up my
